Quotes From The News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

NEW YORK — Casey Stengel on the expected announcement today on whether he remains as manager of the New York Mets:

"When I first took this job I took it with one understanding. I told them if I wasn't satisfied with things, I'd leave, and if they weren't satisfied with me, all they had to do was tell me."

HOLLYWOOD — Elizabeth Montgomery, who plays a witch on the new television series "Bewitched":

"I'm supposed to be 300 years old in this show, but I lie about my age. I tell people I'm only 250 years old."

EN ROUTE WITH GOLDWATER — Sen. Barry Goldwater, countering President Johnson's charge that as chief executive Goldwater would be reckless abroad and heartless at home:

"I wonder what kind of heart his family has when it allows those people down South on his plantation to live the way they do."

ATHENS, Ga. — Sen. Hubert Humphrey criticizing what he termed Sen. Barry Goldwater's corrupted version of conservatism:

"If Senator Goldwater, as a self-styled conservative, has any specific program in mind to implement his ringing manifestos, it is contained in his four comment, 'my aim is not to pass laws, but to reveal them.'"

MURRAY, KENTUCKY

NOTRE DAME CRUSHES WISCONSIN 31-7 — Wisconsin back Ron Smith (25) spins for five yards in the second quarter of play during the Notre Dame-Wisconsin game before 64,398 at Camp Randall, Madison, Wis. Taking out N.D. guard Ken Maglie (62) is halfback Carl Silvestri (45). Linebacker Jim Lynch moves over to plug the hole. The underdog Irish crushed the Badgers 31-7 as a mighty Notre Dame defense held Wisconsin to minus 51 yards rushing.

UK May Switch To A New Yardstick

By DAVID M. MOFFIT

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Kentucky Wildcats have long used their former star Babe Parilli for measuring yardsticks but may soon switch to a new yardstick.

He's Rick Norton who, early in his second varsity season, has kept with Parilli's pace for the same period and who, for his performance in Kentucky's 27-21 upset of Mississippi today was named Southwestern Conference back of the week by United Press International.

Norton, a 6-foot-1, 193 pound junior from Louisville, Ky., blitzed the vaunted Mississippi defenses in a manner almost undreamed of — passing for 226 yards and two touchdowns and scoring another touchdown himself.

It's become a fact of life that you just don't get much yardage against Ole Miss. Norton, bringing his team from behind again and again, paced a Kentucky attack that rolled up 415 yards.

Wildcat fans have been comparing Norton to Parilli since his first outing last season. By season's end, Norton had passed for 1,177 yards compared to the 1,081 yards Parilli got in his sophomore year.

After two games, Norton has 378 yards this season and at that pace would have 1,850 yards for the year. That's about 250 better than Parilli in his junior campaign.

Norton was signed by Kentucky in 1962 after coach Charlie Bradshaw, who took over the Wildcats only a few months before, organized a campaign to have Kentucky abandon its old yardstick.

More than 100 other major schools were after Norton at that time.

This is the second week UPI has picked a conference back of the week. The first week's selection was Alabama quarterback Joe Namath, who earned runnerup honors this week for his role in the Tide's 36-6 win over Tulane.

Namath scored two touchdowns, has 4th and 5th in just two games, and passed and ran for 175 yards to raise his total to 399.

FISHING TIPS

Kentucky Lake: Crappie are best on minnows at 15 feet. Catfish are good on live and cut bait. Scatterd catches of blacks are reported on surface and medium deep-runners.

Below the dam: White bass are best on hellbenders and minnows. Crappie are fair on do-jigs and minnows. Sauger are good on herring minnows in the lock chamber. The water is clear, stable and 72 degrees.

Austin Peay Is On Top Of OVC Heap

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) —

Austin Peay State College continued atop the Ohio Valley Conference standing this week and its scrappy, little quarterback Carlton Platt was named OVC back of the week, according to conference statistics released today.

Austin Peay which went winless in its first OVC season last year, led the eight-college conference with 775 yards total offense piled up in two straight victories this year.

Platt was singled out for "exceptional performance" in the Governors' 26-10 win over Murray State of Kentucky at Clarksville Saturday. Austin Peay defeated Eastern Kentucky 26-0 in its season opener at Clarksville Sept. 19.

Weekly OVC standings, issued by the office of Commissioner Art Gupte here, showed East Tennessee State University in second place after its 16-0 win over 1963 champion Western Kentucky, which dropped to seventh place in the standings.

Bucanneer tackle James Anderson was named top lineman of the week.

St. Louis Cardinals Only One Game Behind Cincinnati; They Win Over Reeling Phils

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD

UPI Sports Writer

If the Cardinals win the National League pennant, there will be more red stars in St. Louis than in Philadelphia.

St. Louis owner August Busch, searching feverishly for the first Cardinal pennant since 1945, preserved General Manager Bing Devine out of a job last month and reliable sources said, prior to this week, that field manager Johnny Nease would also get the ax.

But the Cardinals, taking advantage of the reeling, fumbling Philadelphia Phillies who have skidded from a 6 1/2 game lead to third place Monday night, only one game behind the front-running Cincinnati Reds with a 5-1 victory over the Phils.

After the victory, Branch Rickey, the Cardinals player development consultant and the person some observers believe is responsible for the front-office shakeup, pumped Nease's hand and called him "a good-looking fine manager."

Wine Eight Straight

Bob Gibson, who won his eighth straight, and reliever Barney Schultz, who had defeated St. Louis three times this season, but failed to last six innings Monday night.

Mike Shannon drove in three runs with a sacrifice fly and a single, the latter coming after Johnny Briggs dropped White's routine fly ball in left field and a wild pitch by Jack Baldschun in the eighth.

The Cardinals, probably in the best shape of the three contenders as far as the schedule is concerned, have two games remaining with the Phils and finish with three games against the New York Mets, all at home, while the Phils and Reds clash head-on at Cincinnati in their final two games. The Reds open a three-game series with Pittsburgh tonight in Cincinnati.

The Austin Peay attack gained 40 first downs in the Governors' two opening games of the season, while East Tennessee gained 42.

Quarterback Charley Forrest of Murray, which held a third-place conference standing, led individual players in total offense for 285 yards in passing and rushing. Teddy Morris of Middle Tennessee State was second with 278 yards and Austin Peay's Platt had 222.

East Tennessee end Pete Hunt was the leading pass receiver taking 10 passes for a ground gain of 60 yards.

Small Crowd Record

The smallest Dodger crowd in the history of Dodger Stadium—11,808—saw Los Angeles break a 1-1 tie on a looping single by pinchhitter Dick Truczeki in the eighth inning to defeat Dick Ellsworth 14-17 and the Cincinnati Reds 3-1 in the only other major league game.

Truczeki's hit opened Earl Shirley, who had opened the inning with a single and advanced to second on a sacrifice. Howie Reed 3-4, pinch hit for Ron Ferra, moved in the ninth, was the winner.

The Cardinals could clinch a tie for the American League flag tonight if they sweep their doubleheader with Detroit at New York and both Baltimore and Chicago lose. The Orioles, meanwhile, Washington and the White Sox beat the Los Angeles Angels, with 20-game winner Dan Gassett shut out the Boston and Kansas City at Minnesota in other games.

Short Takes

Gibson allowed five hits in gaining his 18th victory against 11 losses, leading Cardinal number one.

Shultz, who had defeated St. Louis three times this season, but failed to last six innings Monday night.

Mike Shannon drove in three runs with a sacrifice fly and a single, the latter coming after Johnny Briggs dropped White's routine fly ball in left field and a wild pitch by Jack Baldschun in the eighth.

The Cardinals, probably in the best shape of the three contenders as far as the schedule is concerned, have two games remaining with the Phils and finish with three games against the New York Mets, all at home, while the Phils and Reds clash head-on at Cincinnati in their final two games. The Reds open a three-game series with Pittsburgh tonight in Cincinnati.

Bucanneer tackle James Anderson was named top lineman of the week.

Chic and Youthful

New Fashions For Small Women

By SUSAN BARDEN

SMART, well-tailored clothes in small sizes are hard to come by. Usually the juniors and diminutives are covered with buttons, bows and shiny pins or they are typically teenage in feeling. This year Sue Brett rushes to the aid of the little woman. Small But Smart. She has designed a delightful fall and winter collection in sizes 5 to 15 that presents the latest fashion trends and is both sophisticated and youthful.

The silhouettes include the long torso look, the blouse and the coat dress in a dashing, modern version. Suits feature hip-length, box or slightly fitted jackets with a choice of flared, straight or pleated skirts.

BLACK BRAID etches the collar, sleeves and closing of a checked wool coat dress.

WOOL PLAID IS used for a blouse frock with short sleeves, a full skirt.

A MOLDED BODICE with a lowered waistline and long sleeves tops a flared skirt on this one-piece costume.

Mrs. C. C. Lowry Speaks At Dinner Of Zeta Department

Mrs. C. C. Lowry, third vice-president of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, was the guest speaker for the Zeta Department of the Murray Woman's Club which met Thursday evening at six-thirty o'clock with a delightful buffet dinner served at the club house. Mrs. Dan Hutsen gave the invocation.

Mrs. Lowry brought to the group many interesting facts about the KFWC news and pointed out many things that all clubwomen in the local, state and national departments should strive for this year and year's ahead in building a better nation for ourselves and the future generations. She also gave an inspiring report on the KFWC fall board meeting which was held at the Jenny Wiley State Park, Prestonsburg, September 21, 22, 23.

Mrs. Ed West, department chairman, presided and introduced the guests, Mrs. Lowry and Mrs. Jack Kennedy, general president, and also one new member, Mrs. Charles M. Baker. Forty-five members were present.

The department discussed projects for the year and voted to sponsor a program with the public library in recognizing donors of books given to the library in memory of the deceased in the city or county by placing a sticker in the book donated, noting the honored and donor, and also mail a card to the family of the deceased to inform them of the wonderful way in which their beloved is being remembered.

Mrs. West congratulated the program committee, Mesdames Bill Furgerson, John Ivan, Charles Shuffert, and Raymond Hewitt, on their arrangement of programs for the year.

Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Ed West, Purdon Outland, Morris Lamb, Bill Furgerson, and Charles Shuffert.

Bridal Shower Held For Jennifer Riley At The Marine Home

The home of Mrs. Rob Marine was the scene of the lovely bridal shower given in compliment to Miss Jennifer Riley, bride-elect of Harold Hill, on Thursday evening, September 24.

Gracious hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Rob Marine, Miss Robbie Marine, and Miss Carolyn Sue Fulton.

The honoree chose to wear for the occasion a brown and black plaid dress with matching accessories. Her hostesses gift corsage was of yellow carnations.

Games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Wayne Esell, Mrs. Johnny Walker, and Miss Marybeth Bazzell. The door prize went to Mrs. Howard Bazzell.

The gift table was overlaid with a white cloth. A yellow umbrella was placed over the gifts and a bride doll stood on the floor in front of the table. A white wedding bell hung from the archway.

After the opening of the gifts, refreshments were served from a table overlaid with a yellow cloth. Miss Joan Riley served the cake, decorated with yellow and white wedding bells and Miss Robbie Marine served yellow punch from a crystal punch bowl. The centerpiece was a bouquet of yellow roses in a crystal vase.

Those attending and sending gifts were Mesdames Garnett Loftman, Wayne Esell, Rob Ray, Henry Har- gis, Cecil Lake, R. W. Blakely, Dwight Hale, Johnny Walker, Waburn Wyatt, J. L. Ellison, Ernest Madry, Hugh Alexander, Elvin Crouse, W. G. Satterwhite, Harry Potts, Mac Venable, Ruby Housden, Mickie Morton, Keys Blakely, Jack Hixon, Ollis Anderson, Howard Bazzell, Robby Bazzell, James Sutter, Gordon Chester, Burie Sutter, James Newman, Shirley Nance, Wes Fulton, Ralph Ray, James Wash- er, Galen Myers, Misses Marybeth Bazzell, Donna Humphrey, Janet Lake, Joyce Harris, Esther Worley, Cheryl Chester, the honoree and the hostesses.

To Be Married October 17

Miss Anne Kay Evans

Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Evans of Murray announce the engagement of their only daughter, Anne Kay, to Johnny Brockman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Brockman of Louisville.

Miss Evans is a 1961 graduate of Murray College High School and attended Murray State College for one year. She is now employed with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in Louisville.

Mr. Brockman is a 1960 graduate of Athens Trade High School in Louisville. He has served four years with the United States Marine Corps and is now employed with the Pepsi Cola Bottling Company in Louisville.

The wedding will take place October 17 in Louisville.

Davanna Greenfield Honored At Shower At The Woods Home

Another delightful courtesy extended to Miss Davanna Greenfield, bride-elect of Kelly Oene Woods, was the shower held Friday evening at seven-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. Zeffie Woods.

The gracious hostesses were Mrs. Woods and Mrs. James Rose. The honoree wore for the occasion a grey and cranberry checked wool dress trimmed in cranberry leather with cranberry accessories. Her hostesses' gift corsage was of white carnations.

Games were played with the winners of the prizes presenting them to the honoree who opened her many gifts which had been placed on a table overlaid with a white linen cloth centered with a lovely floral arrangement.

Refreshments of cherry delight, coffee, and tea were served by the hostesses in silver and crystal appointments. Assisting the hostesses were Miss Elizabeth Woods and Mrs. Robert Hopkins.

Thirty-two persons were present or sent gifts.

Dear Abby . . .

Not Much!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What would you think about a girl who told you she was sorry she couldn't go to a certain dance with you because she didn't have anything to wear, and then she showed up at the dance with another guy?

JUST WONDERING
DEAR WONDERING: If she showed up without a dress, I'd believe her.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 18. He is 6 feet tall and weighs 190 pounds. He has good character and has worked after school and on weekends ever since he was 16. He bought himself a car and pays the upkeep and insurance himself. He also buys his own clothes. His father and I have just started our own business and I work every day so we won't have to hire a cashier.

I also like to keep my home nice, so I do all my heavy housework on the week-ends in addition to the regular washing and ironing.

When I tell my son to scrub the bathroom and kitchen floors and to wash the windows and woodwork, he gets real ugly and says that's MY job, not HIS. We have had some very hot battles over this. Am I wrong to demand that a healthy 18-year-old son help me?

TIERED MOTHER
DEAR TIERED: Your son sounds like a good boy who would probably give you a hand with the heavy work if you asked him—not told him. Teen-agers become hostile and negative when commands are first at them. If you were to make him feel like a man whose help you needed rather than a little boy who had better take orders from his mother, or else, he'd probably sail right through the chores without a gripe.

DEAR ABBY: My wife reads your column every day and I read it when she makes me. We have been having an argument about something I hope you can settle for us. How should a woman wear her wedding diamond engagement ring first, and her wedding band right next to it? I say she is wearing them backward—that her diamond goes on her finger AFTER her wedding band. I have even pointed out that I see 90 out of 100 women wearing their rings that way. But my wife says THEY are wearing their backward, and she knows she is right because a woman gets her diamond first and it should be put on first, before the wedding ring. Please put your reply in the paper.

BIG JOHN
DEAR JOHN: Even though the diamond is usually presented to a girl first, the wedding ring should be placed on the finger first. Diamonds may be a girl's best friend—but that simple little round ring is placed nearer the heart.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NEEDS TO KNOW" IN MANKATO, MINNESOTA: You can find out how old she really is from the Bureau of Vital Statistics in the city of her birth, but I would not consider marrying a woman whose "real" age I had to learn in that manner.

Troubled? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
